MOTIONS

Mirza Alvarez-Estrada, the accused in this case, by and through counsel, Stephen D. Demik, and Federal Defenders of San Diego, Inc., pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Amendments to the United States Constitution, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and all other applicable statutes, case law and local rules, hereby moves this court for an order:

- 1) Dismiss the Indictment Due to Misinstruction of the Grand Jury;
- 2) Compel Discovery and Preserve Evidence; and
- 3) Grant Leave to File Further Motions

These motions are based upon the instant motions and notice of motions, the attached statement of facts and memorandum of points and authorities, and any and all other materials that may come to this Court's attention at the time of the hearing on these motions.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: August 13, 2008

I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

To the extent the following statement of facts is based upon materials provided by the government, Ms. Mirza Alvarez-Estrada reserves the right to take a contrary position at motion hearings and trial. The facts alleged in these motions, based on the reports of Border Patrol agents, are subject to amplification and/or modification at the time these motions are heard.

On June 19, 2008 Border Patrol agents stopped Ms. Alvarez-Estrada at the S-2 Border Patrol checkpoint. Ms. Alvarez was driving a burgundy 1997 Ford Expedition. Her boyfriend, Jorge Camacho-Anzures was the passenger. During questioning at the checkpoint, agents reported that

1 Ms. Alvarez "look[ed] over to [Mr. Camacho]." Agents discovered four individuals hiding in the 2 back of the Expedition, all of whom were determined to be citizens of Mexico without permission
3 to work, reside, or remain in the United States. All six persons were arrested at the checkpoint.

4 Mr. Camacho, during his post-arrest statement, admitted to transporting the four 5 undocumented persons and receiving payment. He told Border Patrol agents that Ms. Alvarez was 6 not aware that these persons were undocumented. He also told them that Ms. Alvarez "had no 7 participation in the smuggling arrangement."

8 Three of the undocumented persons were retained as material witnesses. All three material
9 witnesses identified Ms. Alvarez as the driver of the Expedition. Two of the three detained material
10 witnesses told agents that the passenger, Mr. Camacho, told them to "get in the vehicle and sit behind 11 the driver."

12 Ms. Alvarez is a citizen of Guatemala legally present in the United States with a pending
13 political asylum application. She was released on bond in El Centro, California on August 7, 2008.
14 She is currently in immigration custody, awaiting pre-trial release.

15 On June 26, 2008, the government filed a six-count indictment charging a violations of 8
16 U.S.C. §1324, and 18 U.S.C. §2. Ms. Alvarez-Estrada has pled not guilty to the charges against her.
17 These motions follow.

18 II.

19 THIS COURT SHOULD DISMISS THE INDICTMENT BECAUSE THE 20 INSTRUCTIONS PROVIDED TO THE GRAND JURY CANNOT BE RECONCILED 21 WITH THE FIFTH AMENDMENT

22 The Ninth Circuit has, over vigorous dissents, rejected challenges to various instructions
23 given to grand jurors in the Southern District of California. See United States v. Navarro-Vargas, 24 408 F.3d 1184 (9th Cir.) (en banc), cert. denied, 126 S. Ct. 736 (2005). See also United States v.
25 Cortez-Rivera, 454 F.3d 1038 (9th Cir. 2006). Ms. Alvarez respectfully disagrees with the Navarro-
26 Vargas majority opinion, and argues that this Court should dismiss the indictment based upon 27 structural error for the reasons set forth in Judge Hawkins' dissent in the en banc opinion, see

1 Navarro-Vargas, 408 F.3d at 1210-11 (Hawkins, J., dissenting), and Judge Kozinski's dissent in the 2 three judge panel decision. See United States v. Navarro-Vargas, 367 F.3d 896, 899-904
3 (9th Cir. 2004) (Kozinski, J., dissenting).

4 III.

5 MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY/PRESERVE EVIDENCE

6 Ms. Alvarez moves for the production of all discovery listed below. This request is not 7 limited to those items that the prosecutor knows of, but rather includes all discovery listed below that 8 is in the custody, control, care, or knowledge of any "closely related investigative [or other] 9 agencies." See United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989). If the government fails to 10 produce said discovery prior to the motion hearing, Ms. Alvarez asks the government be precluded 11 from using it at all in trial.

12 (1) The Defendant's Statements. The government must disclose to the defendant all 13 copies of any written or recorded statements made by the defendant; the substance of any statements
14 made by the defendant which the government intends to offer in evidence at trial -- either in its case-
15 in-chief or in rebuttal; see Fed. R. Crim. P. 16, any response by the defendant to interrogation; the 16 substance of any oral statements which the government intends to introduce at trial and any written 17 summaries of the defendant's oral statements contained in the handwritten notes of the government
18 agent; any response to any Miranda warnings which may have been given to the defendant; as well
19 as any other statements by the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A)¹. The Advisory Committee
20 Notes and the 1991 Amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the Government must reveal all the 21 defendant's statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to 22 make any use of those statements. Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16 is designed "to protect 23 the defendant's rights to a fair trial." United States v. Rodriguez, 799 F.2d 649 (11th Cir. 1986); see

25
26 ¹ Of course, any of Ms. Alvarez's statements, which are exculpatory, must be produced, as 27 well. See Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

1 also United States v. Noe, 821 F.2d 604, 607 (11th Cir. 1987) (reversing conviction for failure to 2 provide statements offered in rebuttal -- government's failure to disclose statements made by the 3 defendant is a serious detriment to preparing trial and defending against criminal charges).

4 (2) Arrest Reports and Notes. The defendant also specifically requests that the 5 government turn over all arrest reports, notes and TECS records not already produced that relate to 6 the circumstances surrounding his arrest or any questioning. This request includes, but is not limited 7 to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts, referral slips, or other documents in which 8 statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material is contained. Such material is 9 discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland. The government must 10 produce arrest reports, investigators' notes, memos from arresting officers, sworn statements, and 11 prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and (C), 26.2 and 12 12(I); United States v. Harris, 543 F.2d 1247, 1253 (9th Cir. 1976) (original notes with suspect or 13 witness must be preserved); see also United States v. Anderson, 813 F.2d 1450, 1458 (9th Cir. 1987)
14 (reaffirming Harris' holding).

15 (3) Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, 16 and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the 17 credibility of the government's case. Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995). Under Brady, Kyles and 18 their progeny, impeachment, as well as exculpatory evidence, falls within the definition of evidence 19 favorable to the accused. See also United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v.
20 Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976). This includes information obtained from other investigations which 21 exculpates Ms. Alvarez.

22 (4) Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under The Guidelines. The 23 government must also produce this information under Brady v. Maryland. This request includes any 24 cooperation or attempted cooperation by the defendant, as well as any information, including that 25 obtained from other investigations or debriefings, that could affect any base offense level or specific 26 offense characteristic under Chapter Two of the Guidelines. The defendant also requests any 27

1 information relevant to a Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of the defendant's criminal
2 history, and information relevant to any other application of the Guidelines.

3 (5) The Defendant's Prior Record. The accused requests disclosure of his prior record.
4 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).

5 (6) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The government must produce evidence of prior 6 similar acts under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, "upon 7 request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of 8 the general nature" of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b)
9 at trial and the purpose for which introduction is sought. This applies not only to evidence which 10 the government may seek to introduce in its case-in-chief, but also to evidence which the government
11 may use as rebuttal. See United States v. Vega, 188 F.3d 1150 (9th Cir. 1999). The defendant is 12 entitled to "reasonable notice" so as to "reduce surprise," preclude "trial by ambush" and prevent the 13 "possibility of prejudice." Id.; United States v. Perez-Tosta, 36 F.3d 1552, 1560-61 (11th Cir. 1994).
14 If the Court chooses not to exclude such evidence because it was not produced or noticed prior to 15 the instant motion hearing, Ms. Alvarez requests such reasonable notice and discovery be produced 16 at least two weeks before trial so as to adequately investigate and prepare for trial.

17 (7) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized as a result 18 of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

19 (8) Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defendant specifically requests the 20 preservation of any and all physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the 21 possession, custody, or care of the government and which relates to the arrest or the events leading 22 to the arrest in this case. This request includes, but is not limited to, the results of any fingerprint 23 analysis, the defendant's personal effects, and any evidence seized from the defendant or any third 24 party in relation to this case. Specifically, Ms. Alvarez moves to preserve the following evidence:
25 the vehicle seized, any personal effects of the defendants; any cell phones seized, and the agents
26 notes of the interrogation.

1 (9) Henthorn Material. Ms. Alvarez requests that the Assistant United States Attorney
2 assigned to this case oversee a review of all personnel files of each agent involved in the present case
3 for impeachment material. Kyles, 514 U.S. at 419; United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir.
4 1991); United States v. Lacy, 896 F. Supp. 982 (N.D. Ca. 1995). At a minimum, the prosecutor has 5 the obligation to inquire of his agents in order to ascertain whether or not evidence relevant to 6 veracity or other impeachment exists.

7 (10) Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect and copy, as well
8 as test, if necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, 9 documents, fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the 10 defense or intended for use in the government's case-in-chief or were obtained from or belong to the 11 defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). Specifically, to the extent they were not already produced, 12 the defendant requests copies of all photographs in the government's possession, including, but not 13 limited to, the defendant and any other photos taken in connection with this case.

14 (11) Expert Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, qualifications, and a written 15 summary of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness
16 during its case in chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). The defense requests that notice of expert
17 testimony be provided at a minimum of two weeks prior to trial so that the defense can properly 18 prepare to address and respond to this testimony, including obtaining its own expert and/or 19 investigating the opinions and credentials of the government's expert. Also pursuant to Fed. R.
20 Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G), the defense requests summaries of any expert witness the government intends 21 to call, along with the identities of those witnesses and the specific materials relied upon by its 22 experts in formulating the opinion. United States v. Fort, 472 F.3d 1106, 1121 (9th Cir.
23 2007)(“materials on which a proposed expert witness relies [in developing his opinions] must be 24 produced to Defendants in discovery). The defense also requests a hearing in advance of trial to 25 determine the admissibility of qualifications of any expert. See Kumho v. Carmichael Tire Co. 119
26 S. Ct. 1167, 1176 (1999) (trial judge is “gatekeeper” and must determine reliability and relevancy 27

1 of expert testimony and such determinations may require “special briefing or other proceedings . .
2 ..”).

3 (12) Reports of Scientific Tests or Examinations. Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F), 4 the defense requests the reports of all tests and examinations conducted upon the evidence in this 5 case that is within the possession, custody, or control of the government, the existence of which is 6 known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government,
7 and which are material to the preparation of the defense or which are intended for use by the 8 government as evidence in chief at the trial. Specifically, the defense requests the DEA-7.

9 (13) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. The defendant requests any evidence that any 10 prospective government witness is biased or prejudiced against the defendant, or has a motive to 11 falsify or distort his or her testimony. This specifically includes production of the material
12 witnesses' "A-files" prior to testimony in a deposition or at trial.²

13 (14) Impeachment Evidence. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective 14 government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and 15 whether any witness has made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609
16 and 613; Brady v. Maryland.

17 (15) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. The defendant 18 requests any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local 19 authorities for any criminal conduct.

20 //

21 (16) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth
22 Telling. The defense requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or 23 evaluation, that tends to show that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember,
24

26 ² From the agents' reports, at least one of the material witnesses, Job Rodriguez-Ramirez, has 27 an arrest for the fraud and misuse of visas, permits and other documents from April 29, 2008.

1 communicate, or tell the truth is impaired, and any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics
2 or other controlled substance, or has ever been an alcoholic.

3 (17) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of trial of all
4 material, including any tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18
5 U.S.C. § 3500; Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at the 6 request of the defendant to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough"
7 notes constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is sufficient for the report or notes to 8 qualify as a statement under section 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92
9 (1963); see also United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) (holding that, where an agent 10 goes over interview notes with subject, interview notes are subject to Jencks Act).

11 (18) Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), the 12 defendant requests all statements and/or promises, express or implied, made to any government 13 witnesses, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which could 14 arguably be used for the impeachment of any government witnesses.

15 (19) Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. In this case, the defendant 16 requests identification of any cooperating witnesses who have committed crimes, but were not 17 charged, so that they may testify for the government in this case. The defendant also requests 18 discovery regarding any express or implicit promise; understanding; offer of immunity; past, present, 19 or future compensation; or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any implicit 20 understanding relating to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability between any 21 prospective government witness and the government (federal, state and/or local). This request also 22 includes any discussion with a potential witness about, or advice concerning, any contemplated
23 prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain was made, or the advice not followed.

24 Pursuant to United States v. Sudikoff, 36 F.Supp.2d 1196 (C.D. Cal. 1999), the defense 25 requests all statements made, either personally or through counsel, at any time, which relate to the 26 witnesses' statements regarding this case, any promises -- implied or express -- regarding 27

1 punishment/prosecution or detention of these witnesses, any agreement sought, bargained for or 2 requested, on the part of the witness at any time.

3 (20) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. To the extent that there was any informant,
4 or any other tip leading to a TECS hit in this case, the defendant requests disclosure of the names
5 and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used, or to be used, in this case, and in 6 particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise
7 participated in the crime charged against Mr. Carrasco-Rivera. The government must disclose the 8 informant's identity and location, as well as the existence of any other percipient witness unknown 9 or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 61-62 (1957). The 10 government must disclose any information derived from informants which exculpates or tends to 11 exculpate the defendant.

12 (21) Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of 13 any information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v. United 14 States. Such information would include what, if any, inducements, favors, payments or threats were 15 made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

16 (22) Residual Request. Ms. Alvarez intends, by this discovery motion, to invoke her rights 17 to discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the 18 Constitution and laws of the United States. Ms. Alvarez requests that the government provide her 19 attorney with the above-requested material sufficiently in advance of trial to avoid unnecessary delay 20 prior to cross-examination.

21 IV.

22 MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

23 Ms. Alvarez and defense counsel has received 100 pages of discovery and two DVDs in 24 discovery. Ms. Alvarez has not had an opportunity to view and inspect the vehicle or seized personal 25 property from this case. As new information surfaces due to the government providing discovery
26 in response to these motions, or an order of this Court, defense may find it necessary to file further 27

1 motions, or to supplement existing motions with additional facts. Therefore, defense counsel
2 requests the opportunity to file further motions based upon information gained from discovery.

3 Respectfully submitted,
